The figure is a horizontal bar chart with 14 columns. The top portion of each column is filled with a light grey color. The bottom portion of each column is filled with a light green color. The third column from the left contains a black rectangular segment in the middle, positioned between the grey and green sections. The bars for the first two columns extend to the same height as the grey portion of the third column. The bars for the remaining columns extend to the same height as the green portion of the third column.
